He said the joint outing would be in London; three towers had been booked so far and a fourth should follow. He also remarked that a number of people, including himself, will be in Oxford on 7th February; so a volunteer to run University Sermon ringing was being sought, and other ringers were invited even more warmly than usual to attend.

The meeting agreed that the next AGM would occur on Sunday 2nd May.

With no other business, the meeting closed at 2117.
